

New Fiction

Dark Angel Letty Davenport #2 by John Sandford – Letty takes on an undercover assignment that brings her across the country and into the crosshairs of a dangerous group of hackers.

Dark Fall Shepherds #3 by Brian Andrews – A weapon of unthinkable power has disappeared from the testing facility where it was held.

Defending Alice by Richard Stratton – Based on the true story of Alice and Leonard Rhinelanders - and a racially charged lawsuit - in 1920s New York

Down Range & Firestorm Garret Kohl #1&2 by Taylor Moore – DEA agent Garrett Kohl fights to protect his home on the Texas High Plains

The Edge of Summer by Viola Shipman – On the sparkling shores of Lake Michigan, a woman searches for clues to her secretive mother's past

Endless Summer by Elin Hilderbrand – Nine delectable stories—prequels, sequels, and "missing chapters" from her cherished books—some of which have never before been published.

Gilded Mountain by Kate Manning – A brave young woman exposes the corruption that enriched her father's employers in early 1900s Colorado.

Go as a River by Shelley Read – Victoria is a teenager in 1940s Colorado, where she is the only female left in a peach-farming family when she falls for a Native American drifter.

Hang the Moon by Jeannette Walls – Sallie is the daughter of the richest man in a small Virginia town during Prohibition. She's a feisty and fearless, terrified and damaged young woman.

The House at the End of the World by Dean Koontz – After a devastating loss and crushing injustice, Katie lives alone in an isolated stone house on Jacob's Ladder island. It soon becomes clear that the nearby island is home to dangerous secrets.

Love, Clancy by W. Bruce Cameron – Clancy the dog is a recent addition to JayB's household, and Clancy loves him. Unfortunately for Clancy, the family also includes the cat, Kelsey.

Loyalty by Lisa Scottoline – Franco is a lemon-grower who dreams of gaining a prosperous future by showing complete loyalty to his boss, Baron Zito. However, Franco crosses a line, setting in motion the making of the world's first Mafia family.

Malibu Rising by Taylor Jenkins Reid – Four famous siblings throw an epic party to celebrate the end of the summer. But over the course of twenty-four hours, their lives will change forever.

Next in Line Warwick #5 by Jeffrey Archer – In 1988 London, royal fever sweeps the nation as Britain falls in love with the 'people's princess'. For Scotland Yard, the focus is on the elite Royalty Protection Command, and its commanding officer.

Pineapple Street by Jenny Jackson – The three children of the old-money, well-connected Stockton family participate in the indulgent pleasures of life among New York's one-percenters.

The Resemblance by Lauren Nossett – One chilly morning at the University of Georgia, a fraternity brother steps into the street and is struck dead by an oncoming car. All witnesses agree the driver looked identical to the victim, and he was smiling.

Signal Fires by Dani Shapiro – On a summer night in 1985, three teenagers have been drinking. When one of them gets behind the wheel of a car, the circumstances of that fatal accident will become the deepest kind of secret.

Simply Lies by David Baldacci – Two women—one a former detective, the other a dangerous con artist—clash in a game of cat and mouse.

Smolder Anita Blake, Vampire Hunter #29 by Laurell K. Hamilton – Even though Anita is now engaged to the Vampire King of America, she must still do her job as a preternatural U.S. Marshall

Things We Do in the Dark by Jennifer Hillier – Paris Peralta becomes an accused murderer when her old and very famous husband is found stabbed to death, and she also has a dark and dirty past.

The Two Lives of Sara by Catherine Adel West – A young mother finds refuge and friendship at a boardinghouse in 1960s Memphis, Tennessee.

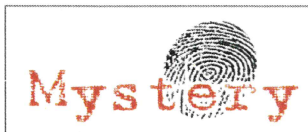

Where are the Children Now? By Mary Higgins Clark – Over 40 years after Nancy was convicted of murdering her first two children, she’s built a new life with two new children from a second marriage.
The White Lady by Jaqueline Winspear – Elinor is a reluctant ex-spy who finds herself facing down one of the most dangerous crime gangs in London
The Zero Night Johnathan Stride #11 by Brian Freeman – Johnathan and his wife Serena are investigating two cases: a kidnapping and a reexamination of a suicide from several years ago.
